

Tuition Fee

---

- As per KU regulations.

Financial Support and Opportunities:

- The program offers scholarship for 2 students as full fee and hostel fee waiver.
- Department of Electrical and Electronics Engineering will give priority to share opportunities of student assistantship, teaching or research assistantships or part time theory and practical course contracts to competent students if available.
- Students will be encouraged to pursue studies in collaborative Universities for course or thesis work under student exchange programs.
- Students may be provided financial support for attending seminars and conferences to present their papers based on availability of funds.